MAY BE TAKEN TO CANADA

IT IS POSSIBLE HE MAY BE TRIED FOR SEVERAL MURDERS.

A Druggist in Chicago is Positive That He Murdered the Williams Sisters and Another Girl Who Was His Slave—A Remains of a Crematory Which Was Used by Holmes is Unearthed.

Philadelphia, July 25.—Owing to the verdict of the Toronto jury charging Holmes with the murder of the two Pletzel children, the chances are now almost beyond doubt that Holmes will be taken to Canada to stand trial for the murders. It has been the intention of District Attorney Graham to have Holmes tried in any city where the evidence would warrant the most speedy conviction on the charge of murder. It is stated that it will require at least two months to effect the extradition of the accused.

Attorney Shoemaker, who represents Holmes, to-day declared his client was not afraid to face any charge the Canadian authorities had to make.

"The district attorney," said he, "should proceed slowly in this matter, or the result will be that he will not have Holmes on even the charge of conspiracy, to which he pleaded guilty and is now awaiting sentence. The process of extradition is just as difficult from the Canadian jurisdiction as it is from that of the United States. As it is, if the Toronto authorities fail to convict, which I am certain they will, there may be a fight before the man is returned."

Toronto, July 25.—Crown Attorneys Curry and Dewart had a consultation to-day as to what should be done in view of the findings of the coroner's inquest last evening, and as a result of their talk Detective Cuddy this afternoon swore out warrants charging Holmes with the murder of the two Pletzel girls. The warrants were placed in the hands of Detective Inspector Setrak, who at once took the necessary proceedings to have Holmes extradited.

Chicago, July 25.—A. J. Jones, who purchased a drug store here from Holmes, is positive that Holmes is guilty of murdering the Williams sisters, and insists that he also ended the life of Kate Durky, a young woman who was for a time his slave. The girl had her life insured. Mr. Jones to-day said: "Holmes was digging in that cellar day and night, and I now think he was burying the bodies of those he had slaughtered."

Mrs. Quinlan, wife of one of the former janitors of the Holmes building, to-day stated that a young lady named Elgrand, who lived with Holmes just before the Williams girls, and who came to Chicago from Indiana, had mysteriously disappeared. The searchers in the Holmes castle to-day found a shoulder bone which the detectives believe is part of an adult's body; and a socket bone, supposed to be part of the remains of a child. A portion of a dress was also found. The remains of a furnace that was possibly used by Holmes as a crematory, was unearthed in the cellar this morning.

The man who built the furnace says that Holmes maintained great secrecy concerning its construction and said it was to be used in his gas manufacturing experiments. As no attempt was ever made to make gas this story was clearly a fabrication. The furnace had an air tight receptacle in which could be generated a heat of 2,400 degrees F., and was not long enough to contain a body.

FIGHT IS NOW ASSURED.

New York, July 25.—Joe Vendig, the manager of the Florida Athletic club, received from Pittsburgh to-night a copy of the articles of the match between Peter Maher and Steve O'Donnell. The articles were signed by Maher and by John Quinn, Maher's backer. This fight is now assured. The bout will come off at Dallas, Tex., November 1 next. O'Donnell is at Asbury Park training Corbett for his fight with Fitzsimmons.

THE PASSENGERS JUMPED

And No One Was Seriously Injured.

Norwalk, July 25.—The northbound passenger train on the Danbury and Norwalk road, leaving Norwalk at 6:03 met the south bound passenger due here at 6:11 at the Fair grounds switch this evening. The down train waited on the main track. The up train took the switch all right, but a rail at the side of the waiting engine turned over under the last car, and its momentum hurled it against the engine. The side of the car was torn open, and both trucks were smashed. All the fifteen passengers jumped and escaped with slight injuries and a general shaking up.

WON IN STRAIGHT HEATS.

Providence, July 25.—To-day's trotting and pacing were both won in three straight heats. Santana and Prince Alcandra made a close contest, but the latter succeeded in taking all three heats. This was in the 2:18 trot and pace. The other race in the 2:22 class pacing was taken by Ella C. without being headed.

His Chances Are Slight.

Hanover, N. H., July 25.—Thomas W. D. Worthen, professor of mathematics, in Dartmouth, is critically ill with appendicitis. An operation was performed at the hospital in Hanover this afternoon by Paul F. Munde, M. D., professor at Dartmouth medical school. His condition was found to be very serious. His chances of recovery are about one in four.

MYSTIC PARK RACES.

A Fine Field Was Entered With Hot Trotting in Some Events.

Boston, July 25.—A fine field was entered at Mystic park to-day. The bay horse Antelope was not in condition. The weather was fine, track fast and attendance good.

The 2:13 trotting was a hot one and the starters were such as to make it extremely difficult to pick winners. Edith H. was a strong favorite, but Vega was well thought of, while Toma was easily second choice. The first heat was Toma's from start to finish. Caprice came close to him at the turn, but was passed by the favorite at the three-eighths. The grey made a stout fight up the stretch and finished about a neck behind Toma. In the second heat Toma had the lead, closely followed by the grey mare, with Vega third. At the half the grey took the lead, but lost it again at the upper turn, finishing behind Toma. In the third heat Edith H. took the pole and led to the half, when she dropped behind, although she kept her feet. Nemoline forged ahead at this point and took the heat. In the fourth heat the judges awarded the heat to J. M. D., who finished second, it being evident that the horse was able and willing to do better.

In the fifth the favorite took the lead at the quarter and held it throughout. In the sixth it was easy for the grey. Edith H. won in the seventh heat.

In the 2:11 pacing class Gilcurry was the favorite, but it was evident that the winner, whoever he might be, would have no walkover. In the first heat Vitello took the lead, with Whisper second and Henry F. third. At the turn Henry F. got in front, but went off his feet after the half, and fell behind. The favorite followed. At the half the favorite went into the air, but quickly regained his feet.

At the upper turn Vitello was closely pushed by Rebus, but both were passed by Henry F., who came down the stretch very fast, but broke when almost under the wire. For this he was set back to fourth. This gave the heat to Vitello. In the second Vitello took the lead, with Jewell following closely, while Gilcurry did some fine work on the back side. Rebus broke at the half and Jewell took the lead and kept it throughout the heat, doing a mile in 2:09 3/4.

In the third Jewell got away from the field, with Vitello second. Gilcurry came up to third on the back side, but fell back to fourth. Jewell was an easy winner. In the fourth Jewell took the lead throughout and took the race. In the 2:24 trotting class there were eight starters and Nutshell had it all her own way in the first heat. Brown Lace and Nicola put up very pretty matches, but they were too slow. In the second heat Nutshell won easily. At the upper turn Nicola gave her a sharp rub and finished second. The third and winning heat was taken by Nutshell, Nicola taking second money.

BLUE RIBBON MEETING.

Conditions Were Almost Perfect for Fast Time.

Detroit, July 25.—This was the fourth day of the Blue Ribbon meeting of the Detroit club. The conditions were almost perfect for fast time.

In the 2:11 class for trotters, Klamath, the winner, cut his record of 2:09 3/4 made at Janesville, Wis., this season, by a full second and William Penn, who won the third heat, cut his mark of 2:11 by four seconds and captured the $500 extra purse offered by the club for the fastest heat trotted better than 2:07 1/2. In the 2:23 trot, which was unfinished from yesterday, Red O'Warlock had no trouble in landing the deciding heat. In the 2:11 class trotting event Klamath won the first heat handsly. Penn gave the gelding a great race in the second heat. Klamath had a good time of the matter. Penn took the lead into the stretch and drew away from Klamath, but the terrific pace told on him and Klamath, coming fast from the distance won out by a nose in a driving finish.

Klamath was a better favorite than ever in the third heat, but Penn won in 2:07 1/2.

Penn has a 2 to 10 favorite for the fourth heat, but he broke badly in the back stretch and lost what chances he had for winning the race and Klamath won easily.

Brown Hal, Jr., was the favorite for the 2:15 class pacing. Charley Dobie sent Vistigle out for the first, however, and landed handsly.

On the first turn Vistigle broke badly and went all to pieces at the quarter and was distanced. Charley Dobie claimed that Nicol B. had collided with him and asked for a place in the race, but did not substantiate his claim. When Nicol B. went in front of Vistigle his sulky caught the wheel of Babette's sulky and tore off the fire. The mare went to all three-quarters without the tire when another sulky hub caught Babette's disabled wheel and finished it.

The judges would not allow Woodworth a claim and distanced the mare. With Vistigle out of the way Brown Hal became an odds on favorite and won the next two heats easily. In the last event James L. was the favorite, but the fact that he did not show up in the first heats did not effect the betting. Colonel Kyser made a play for the last three heats, but was not quite equal to the task, James L. winning each time in a close finish.

Will Ignore the Demands.

Panama, July 25.—The canal company does not, it appears, intend to concede the demands made by the striking laborers. It has issued a notice to the effect that all skilled laborers who apply for work will be engaged. This, of course, includes such of the strikers as may apply for reinstatement, but they will have to accept work on the company's terms.

BREEZES FROM SHORT BEACH

PEOPLE WHO ARE ENJOYING THEMSELVES AT THE SHORE.

One of the Largest of the Summer Resort Villages in This Vicinity—Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the Poetess, and Bishop Goodsell of San Francisco, Are Occupying Their Cottages at the Beach.

The summer is being enjoyed at Short Beach by an unusually large number of people this season. This is perhaps the largest of the summer resort villages in this vicinity and it is visited each year by an increasing number of people. All who go there for any length of time become so attached to the place that they revisit it annually.

It is not only the class of people that live there through the summer that makes the place a desirable one to live in, but also the natural beauty of its situation. The village is bounded on either side by high rocky ledges, which are covered with dense thickets. A small rivulet comes down from the hills directly back of the village and flows into the sound, or rather that arm of the beach itself is one of the prettiest, if not the very prettiest, along the east shore. It stretches between the two boundary rocks of the little valley a smooth and even reach of sand that delights the eye.

But no comment on Short Beach would be complete without some notice of the approach to it. The rumble and roar of the locomotive does not disturb its midsummer quiet. The nearest outside world comes to these dwellers by the sea is when some of the big steamboats and sailing vessels go by away out in the sound. Hemmed in on all other sides by hills and woods, the beautiful little village seems almost shut out from the world.

But access to the village is easy enough from New Haven. One may go to East Haven by either the steam or electric cars and from there by Nesbit's popular stages to the beach, or, if inclination prompts, can take the two-mile walk. Probably many people do not care for a two-mile walk on a hot July afternoon. But yet it has its rewards as well as its sweat. If the traveler takes the stage he might not get time to jump out and fill his pockets with some of the fine red Astrachan apples which adorn many of the trees along the roads in East Haven at this season of the year. He might not have time to admire the prosperous-looking East Haven farmsteads and wish that he, too, might be a proprietor of something, if only a few acres. Perhaps the stage wouldn't stop at the half-way house for the traveler to refresh himself with a glass of hop beer. And then the traveler would miss that delicious and satisfying sensation which hop beer always imparts on hot July afternoons after a dusty mile walk. And then as the traveler goes up the hill, if he is in a stage, he might miss the view of the fertile East Haven meadows and the village itself beyond with the spire of its old historic church lifting itself to heaven as if invoking a blessing on the scene of beauty and plenty which surrounds it, itself the most conspicuous object in the landscape. The foot passenger also may have leisure to view those beautifully wooded ridges beyond East Haven which surround Lake Saltonstall, making a mighty amphitheater.

But if you took the stage you were at Short Beach long ago. The foot passenger plods along through the woods and after due time reaches there, too.

Bishop Goodsell of San Francisco, Cal., who resides in his beautiful cottage at Rockland park, and Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the poetess, who lives at the Bungalow, which has become famed far and near as her residence, are the titular sovereigns of this little empire, which has been built largely through prestige they have brought to the place. Bishop Goodsell's son, Buell Goodsell of Meriden, is a frequent visitor at the beach.

Robert Wilcox of Meriden, his wife, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, occupy the Bungalow. Isaac Harshbarger and family of Southington are living in the house on the hill at the entrance to Short Beach. Sidney Clark of Hartford arrived last week Wednesday at Manor Lodge.

Mrs. Doyle, widow of the late Patrick Doyle, superintendent of streets, and her children are occupying Mrs. Strong's cottage. Mrs. Edward Russell of New Haven and her daughter are at their cottage on the beach.

H. A. Blunt of New Haven is at his very pretty cottage in Rockland Park for the season. Dr. J. P. C. Foster and family, who are annual visitors, occupy a cottage in Rockland Park. Miss Trowbridge, daughter of Henry Trowbridge of New Haven, is visiting the Fosters. N. W. Perkins of New Haven and family are at their own cottage for the season.

Mrs. Beckett of Meriden, who owns the first cottage built at the beach recently arrived from her home and will remain during the summer. Mrs. Churchill of New Haven is occupying her large house at the beach. With her is her daughter, Miss Lillian Churchill; her nephew, Mr. Doollittle, and Mr. Jones of the Yale Divinity school.

Mrs. Hitchcock of New Haven is at the Middle Beach cottage for the season. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hazel of New Haven are at their cottage and Edwin S. Ferry and family are in the same cottage.

W. B. Harwood of New York has been at the beach about two weeks and he and his family are in one of the two cottages. Mrs. Hodges of New York is also at one of the two cottages. George Seely, wife and daughter of Meriden, are at their cottage for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carnell and daughter of New Haven are occupying the cottage which formerly belonged to Mr. Blunt, which Mr. Carnell has purchased.

E. G. Oakley and family are at their cottage for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Adams of New York are located. Fred A. Waldron of New Haven is at the Cove cottage. Lewis Fisk of the yacht Neva of the New Haven Yacht club was a visitor at the beach last week.

Detained to Niantic. Washington, July 25.—Secretary Lamont to-day detailed Major J. B. Babcock, assistant adjutant general, to attend the Connecticut National Guard encampment at Niantic.

FACE WAS TOO SWIFT. Ed Hanlon and Other Oarsmen Were at St. Clair.

St. Clair, Mich., July 25.—Ex-Champion Ed Hanlon and lots of other oarsmen and thousands of landmen are gathered here in attendance upon the twenty-seventh annual meet of the Northwestern Rowing association. Hanlon is coaching the Argonauts of Toronto. In the junior four there were four starters. The wind was blowing fresh from the northwest and the Argonauts had the best of the same by having the best position. The Ecorse team had the worst of it by drawing the fourth or outside position. Nevertheless the Ecorse men pulled a strong, steady stroke and came in a few lengths behind the Argonauts, the leaders in the event. The Ecorse team at once entered a protest on the ground that the Canadians had been given outside assistance by a man who hugged the shore in a single scull, coached the men and directed their course. The decision of the umpire is withheld. The matter will come up for decision in the annual meeting to-morrow.

Leftover of the Mutuals of Detroit won the junior single scull event, rowing away from Gies, also the Mutuals, and Fred Gies of the Toronto. Time, 13:47.

The Mutuals won the junior pair oars, with A. J. Skiffington in the bow and B. F. Kiesel stroke. Time, 13:34. The Ecorse pair finished many lengths behind. The tandem canoe race was won by Gould and Noah of Detroit, over Reynolds and Bancroft of the same club. The race was half mile and was won in 3:04.

The Argonauts started, but the pace set was too swift for the Canadians. The junior double sculls was easily won by Toronto in 15:46 1/2. The Mutuals were far behind.

The senior events will be rowed to-morrow.

WILL MAINTAIN THE RATES

ACTION TAKEN BY REPRESENTATIVES OF IMPORTANT ROADS.

George R. Blanchard, Who Presided, Said That There Was Nothing to Give Out, But It Was Learned That Uniform Rates Will Be Maintained Between the Trunk Line and Central Associations.

New York, July 25.—The representatives of the railroads embraced in the Trunk Line and Central associations met here to-day. There were 250 present, though only fourteen of these were members of the committee having the matter under consideration. George R. Blanchard of the association presided. At the close of the meeting Mr. Blanchard said:

"At a meeting at the Oriental hotel, Manhattan Beach, July 23, the railway presidents appointed a committee of fourteen to consider the subject then presented. This committee appointed a sub-committee which agreed upon a unanimous report. The committee of fourteen met for the consideration of this, adopted it and referred the subject to the railway presidents' committee, of which Mr. Ingalls is acting chairman in absence of Mr. Depew. This report will not reach him and his committee until to-morrow or later. I am unable to say what further action will be taken regarding the report."

Mr. Blanchard declined to say what the report agreed to or consisted of further than that it was one for the maintenance of uniform rates. From remarks that have been made during the past day or two by railway men, however, it is generally understood and the railway men do not deny it that the report provides for the creation of a governing board which will have full power in the regulation of rates.

Request to Harvard. New York, July 25.—Rev. Dr. Arthur Brooks left personal property valued at $200,000. His will was filed to-day. It appoints his wife, Elizabeth Willard Brooks, and his brother, William G. Brooks, of Boston, executors. All of the testator's property is left to Mr. Brooks.

MAKES AN ASSIGNMENT.

Young Thomas Trowbridge Turns Over His Property to a Prudent Man—Return Made in the Town Clerk's Office This City.

Thomas Trowbridge, familiarly known as "Tommy," who last summer ran a photograph gallery at Pico Park, and came out early this season with the announcement that he would put upon the stage the drama, "The Diamond Crusher," has assigned his property, real and personal, to a man named Harry C. Curtis, whose address is at 49 Westminister street, Providence, R. I. Mr. Trowbridge's photographic enterprise last summer created some surprise, his entrance upon a theatrical career and his announcement to-morrow that he had married a New York lady created quite a sensation.

But now comes the most singular thing of all in a paper filed in the town clerk's office in this city late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Curtis of Providence presented the document for record.

By this paper Thomas Trowbridge assigns all his property, real and personal, wherever located, to Harry C. Curtis of Providence, together with all securities of whatever value, all moneys and all claims and debts due him.

This is the language of the document, in which it is also specified that Curtis shall take possession of all the estate and dispose of it in a manner which will be for the best interest of the creditors of Thomas Trowbridge and that he shall convert it into money as soon as possible.

It is also provided that after the estate is converted into money the first debts to be paid shall be those due by Thomas Trowbridge to the United States or to the state of Rhode Island. After that all moneys due by Thomas Trowbridge to employees, no one of which shall receive more than $100 the surplus of the estate, should any remain, shall be distributed equally among Mr. Trowbridge's creditors in proportion to their several claims, any surplus after that to go to Mr. Trowbridge.

The assignment was executed June 10 at Providence, R. I., and recorded there on that date.

The assignment is made in Providence because it is in that city that Mr. Trowbridge's business is located. He took Lothrop's opera house last season and it is said sunk some $10,000 in the business.

F. A. BUCK'S STATEMENT. More Given Out in the Willimantic Bank Statement.

Willimantic, July 25.—Ex-Bank Commissioner E. A. Buck to-night gave out for publication two statements—one of them from the data obtained by him in his examination of the Dime Savings bank on July 15 and the other from data obtained by Bank Examiner Crofut and himself after the 16 per cent. scale. Mr. Buck says that his purpose is to show for the sake of the curious the difference in the statements of himself and the ones sent out later by Bank Examiner Crofut.

Following is the statement of Mr. Buck's examination of the bank's liabilities:

Deposits $564,330.15, interest account $15,274.55, surplus $20,000, profit and loss $3,275.70; total $622,880.40.

Assets—Loans on real estate $319,049, loans on collateral $84,741.21, loans on personal security $77,473.44, loans to towns $3,000, loans to school districts $6,700, railroad bonds $11,613.85, bank stock $78,898, real estate by foreclosure $3,034.75, banking house $12,000, expense $531.64, safe, furniture and fixtures $3,411.64, cash in First National bank $201.68, cash in Windham National bank $7,036.47, cash in First National bank Hartford, $9,355, cash on hand $5,733.02; total $627,880.40.

Statement of examination of Mr. Crofut and Mr. Buck after the 16 per cent. scale:

Liabilities—Deposit after 16 per cent. scale $488,568, bills payable to First National bank $5,114; total $493,682.

Assets July 21—Real estate loans $93,424, loans on collateral $36,201, loans on personal security $43,638, loans to school districts $6,700, bank stock $59,715, real estate by foreclosure $3,034.75, banking house $12,000, expense $581.64, furniture, safe and fixtures $1,000, cash in First National bank $201.63, cash in Windham National bank $5,350, cash in National bank Hartford, $2,122.63, cash on hand $1,223.92; total $483,202.62. Balance showing a difference in the two statements is found in the difference in the estimates of furniture, fixtures, etc., the expense account and the discovery of the ticket for $4.47.

Mr. Buck claims that the shortage of $256.35 in actual cash is not over $256.35.

The cash assessment on the Dime Savings bank in the collapse of the First National bank was $15,075.

The directors of the Dime Savings bank held a meeting to-night. E. B. Sumner, the bank's attorney, and Walden's attorney, Thomas J. Kelly, who returned from Allentown, Pa., this morning, reported to the directors at this meeting. Mr. Sumner announced that he can show the depositors that they will realize between $9,000 and $10,000 from Seaton & Balnes of Allentown, this firm having signified their willingness to pay the money to the bank. The directors will hold another meeting to-morrow night.

EIGHTH WARDERS AWAKE. To Have a Band Concert Next Thursday Evening.

Merchants and others doing business in that part of the Eighth ward in the vicinity of the Forsyth dye works, the John Adt factory, Shuster's dry goods store, No. 5's engine house and Treffry's drug store were subscribing liberally yesterday, raising funds in order that that part of the city shall have a band concert. The subscriptions came in at a lively rate. The spot selected for giving the concert is the little triangular plot, or park, in front of the Forsyth dye works, and next Thursday evening is the time set.

INDIANS ON THE RAMPAGE

SETTLERS IN TETON BASIN HAVE CALLED FOR PROTECTION.

A Little Band is Surrounded and the Hostile Bannocks Are Trying to Drive Them From Their Positions—Provisions Are Almost Gone and They Will Soon be Killed.

Boles, Idaho, July 25.—Governor McConnell received to-day a call from the settlers in the Teton Basin for protection against the Indians. As the state has no militia he wired the authorities at Washington for troops and received word that General Conlinger would move troops to the scene at once.

Word reached here to-day that a little band of settlers were surrounded twenty miles from St. Anthony by hostile Bannocks, who had made several attempts by firing upon them to drive them from their positions.

A messenger who made his way around the lines to St. Anthony reports that the provisions were almost gone and unless succor reached them soon they would be killed.
